While we award the highest credit and praise to those who have rendered great services in the field and cabinet in suppressing the gigantic rebellion, by which the existence of the Government has been threatened, we should not forget those who have rendered eminent but less conspicuous, service to the country. If large armies were required to put down the re-bellion, money was no less required to him, and do all I can, that no Republican meet the immense expenses incurred by war and maintain the public credit. Undoubtedly, Jay Ccoke, of Philadelphia, has rendered great and important service in can do as they please. That no military will be at the polls. I am not afraid. I am as independent as a street scraper [applause]. The Constitution is a dead letter in Kentucky, and nothing else. In 1776 the Congress of the Colonies framed the Declarities of Lydgerydones but in 1874. ration of Independence, but in '87 it was first adopted, and according to the laws of the United States it can only be changed by a two-third majority of Congress and three-fourths of the States. And if a State has said "yes," it has said yes. And if no, it has said no, and therefore the election next Monday is unconstitutional. And now you can choose your own candidates. There are two German candidates among them, one of which has studied. Now I did not study, and still am Mayor of the city of Louisville. My father was a German farmer, and I couldn't steal the money from him to study, therefore it is not any fault that I am no hearned.

fore it is not my fault that I am no learned man. President Lincoln, who was so foully murdered, was a rail-splitter and President Johnson was a tailor, and both were made President. And, although my father was a farmer, I can be Mayor of Louisville. I nope you Germans will not vote for any German candidate, because we can have better ones. I shall not vote for any of the two German candidates, because they didn't vote for me. You have three candidates for sote for me. You have three candidates for Congress. There is Gen. Rousseau, a very brave man. Yes, he did fight well for the Union, and did his duty as general, and for this he got his pay. And Mr. Mundy has also fought bravely, and has done much, and for this he was also paid, yes, and Mr. Mallory is as good as both of them. But if I should learn that one of these candidates was brought out by the Union League, then I shall privately and publicly work against make me and the German name a shame and if you have voted, go and get your neighbor to vote also, and then go home, and don't make me and the German name a shame, and vote as you please. The Florida Union says, that the afflicted father of Payne, the would-be murderer of Secretary Seward, has been making a visit o Jacksonville, in that State. He lost one son at the battle of Murfreesboro; another returned home maimed for life. 'Lewis' was his only hope in his old age. The afflicted father was a Baptist minister, as has been stated. We must necessarily pronounce just the terrible punishment to the son, but we cannot withhold our deepest

A correspondent of the Providence Journal asserts that it is a fact, as yet unofficially announced, that Mr. Greeley "has ceased to control, or even to conduct, the New York Tribune." An official an-nouncemnt to this effect, will, it is said, be made in a few days. The correspondent making this statement expresses the opin-ion that Mr. Greeley "has been crowded out," as the result of a plan which has been some time working. Once the entire owner of the Tribune property, Mr. Greeley transformed it into a joint stock company, the stock as to lose him the control.

The two kings of Siam have been "decorated" by the Emperor Napoleon. The French consul at Bangkok, M. Aubaret, by command of the Emperor, conferred the ribbon of the Legion of Honor upon the kings, and the diplomas, being considered as the Emperor's autogrophs, were each received by a salute of twenty guns. A procession of boats, laden with soldiers in every variety of costume, and having the royal war elephants on board, was striking and picturesque. The kings wore crowns of diamonds and the insignia of the order. At the foot of the throne the princes of the royal family and high diamication of the proved family and high diamication of the royal family. royal family and high digni aries of the crown remained during the ceremony pros-trated on magnificent carpets. After a state dinner the kings requested M. The Asiatic cholera is making its way to the West, with even more rapidity than was anticipated. Several cases have already occurred at Malta, and a panie has commenced in the neighboring island of Sicily, the inhabitants of which were, at the last accounts, daily expecting the arrival of the dread visitor. Thus the disease, which has heretofore kept south of the Mediterranean is now in the center of that sea, and will soon be raging on its northern shores. Meanwhile it is not likely that the authorities of any American city will take steps to mitigate the severity of the pestilence until it is close upon us, when all steps will be in vain. Energy and forethought are words not to be found in the municipal vocabularies of this country. SANTA ANNA.-General Santa Anna has been snubbed by Maximilian, after recognizing the Government of the latter, and Gen. Santa Anna has issued a pronuncia-mento in true Mexican style from his place of exile in the island of St. Thomas of exile in the island of St. Thomas. It would have looked much better if the appeal to Mexican patriofism, in behalf of Republican nationality, has been made before the acknowledgment of the right of the usurper, and the snubbing took place. The fact cannot escape the observation of the intelligent American that Santa Anna, after accepting the conquest and appreciation accepting the conquest and usurpation hurls his anathema at the foreigner from Mississippi Politics.

We imagine that the Mississippi State We imagine that the Mississippi State Convention, which is shortly to assemble, will be peculiarly complexioned politically. The Vicksburg Herald seems to entertain serious misgivings concerning the action of the convention. On the 21st the Herald contained the following: contained the following:

"THE VIEWS OF DELEGATES TO THE STATE CONVENTION.—If the delegates elect-STATE CONVENTION.—If the delegates elected to the State Convention go there with the views expressed by the Hinds county candidates, as stated in public cards, there is no hope of Mississippi being relieved of military rule. The people had as well make up their minds to stand it a while longer. We take it that President Johnson and the United States Congress do not design re-establishing the "Confederate States," and hence come to the conclusion that until Mississippi is ready to become a cordial member of the Union, recognizing the equality of the citizens of other States, there is no hope of her being admitted into there is no hope of her being admitted into the equality of the Union."

What the "views" are to which the Herand refers, may be inferred from the following extract from the card of one of the candidates. He is discussing the question of the illegality of the call for a convention: "In considering the question it is necessary to keep in view the fact that the State and the people are now under the control of military authority. It is true that there is a quasi civil government, under the adminstration of a gentleman every way acceptable to the people, but that government is unknown to the constitution and laws of the State, is appointed by and represents the purposes and will of the Federal power, and is therefore inconsistent with and repugnant to every principle of constitution-al liberty as understood and heretofore practiced in this country.

"The idea which I wish too onvey is, that by the disastrous result of the struggle which has just terminated, we remain this day without the power of enforcing one sinrle one of the inalienable rights which we have inherited from our ancestors, and which belong to us as members of the Federal Government, are recognized and se-cured in its constitution. What is more, we shall remain in this condition, without any hope or relief, until a convention of our people shall so amend the present constitution of the State as to make it acceptable to the central power. Upon doing this, and not before, we are told we may resume our place in the Union, and thus regain such of our rights as members thereof as have not been lost in the storm of civil war.'

The Cincinnati Catholic Telegraph, speaking of the execution of Mrs. Surratt, and the alleged belief of Rev. Mr. Walters, a priest of its denomination, in her inno-

"Mrs. Surratt.—It is much to be desired that they who claim to be the friends of this unfortunate woman would allow her memory to rest in peace. The Democrat is delighted with General Cox's letter, some mention of which we made a day or two since. The Democrat chuckles over it because it reveals the toughness and formidable proportions of the negro problem. The editor expresses his unqualified skepticism as to the feasibility of the General's plan, and accordingthat the difficulties which this plan is inno possibility of the two races living tothe separation of them is impracticable. alternative, the final and only remedy, tain to visit them." namely, the re-enslavement of the negro And so he is cheered, and stimulated into an unusually long dissertation on the refreshing and elegant dead-lock into which social affairs in the South have been brought. Hear the old humbug talk:

Need not ask us; what will you do about it? There was a settled system, by which the white man and the negro lived in peace. The white man was satisfied, and the negro was benefitted, more than he ever was under any system that has ever been tried. Under this system the white man South has done more for the negro than all the white men the world beside have done for him. He has given him more instruction, furnished him with more of the comforts and yments of life than the negro ever en-The saints, however, have resolved that this system shall be destroyed, for the sake of justice and humanity and other good things. But here of "abolitionism." To be a Unionist tolating his parole. And so this flippant charlaton thinks he absolves himself from all responsibility in the case, by railing and mocking at "the the country into a tangle of difficulties from which it cannot be extricated, and he announces his intention to sit by and take his fill of satisfaction in scoffs and mockery. If he is sincere, he is simply fiendish. If he is not, he is only an ass. Either way the little influence he has is mischievous and the scanty ideas he manages to inculcate are unmitigated error. If there is anything to hinder the colored race from living and flourishing in freedom on this continent it is the devilish hatred in the black hearts of white-faced men. And we cherish profoundly the comforting blief that the number of such hearts is not now, and never will be great enough to control the policy of the nation, or stamp their evil hopes upon its destiny. And it is late in the day to talk about the beauties of the slave system. However impracticable negro suffrage or colonization may prove, the experiment of slavery will not be repeated. To surrender the case as irreduceable, is to fling up our whole system of Democracy, and tumble apart into anarchy and uproar, to be gathered together again, if at all, only by the iron hand of a military despotism.

Kentucky conservatives may not see any solution to difficulties of such magnitude as beset the problem in question. It is not strange that they shouldn't. They don't see far, nor very much of the little that is included within their limited visual range. Their leader-this same humbug of an editor-isn't aware that free negroes are ever anything but beggars and paupers. He thinks the West Indies are depopulated. He anticipates the exodus of the Anglo-Saxon race from this continent. He supposes the rejection of the amendment by Kentucky would prevent that catastrophe. And yet he admits that national affairs are already in a state of hopeless distraction. But the sturdy and resolute loyalty of the country will not be throttled by this problem. Nobody derives the difficulties that lie around and upon it. And no clear-sighted person can fail to see that the most prominent aggravations of these, are the language and conduct of malevolent men who chuckle over the troubles their own disloyalty has helped to bring upon the nation. But with all these and all conceivable aggravations, this problem will be worked out in a manner that accords with Christianity and Republicanism. To doubt it is atheistic, to rejoice in the doubt is devilish.

THE "SETTLED SYSTEM,"

The Democrat says slavery was a "settled system," under which the white man was "satisfied." Never! The "system" was so unsettled, and so unsettled and diswatisfied the white man that he strove to upset the Union in order to settle the system. Consequently, slavery is "settled" forever by its extinction, and to the eventual real satisfaction of every surviving Southern white man-who was not hopelessly deranged by slavery-and the Union is settled forever upon the everlasting basis of Uni-

The Anti Slavery Element in Arkansas. A correspondent writing to the Chicago Tribune from Little Rock, Ark., under date of July 19th, says;

The last Carroll of Carrollton is Twelfth Kentucky Cavalry.

This regiment has just arrived from ashville to this city, to be mustered out of service. Its duties have been active and well performed for three years. Its first duty was to guard the State border from invasion and suppress guerrillas. It participated in the pursuit and capture of John Morgan, traveling fitteen hundred miles to accomplish it. It took an active part in the East Tennessee campaign, enduring the losses and hardships of the siege of Knoxville. ville. It moved on the left of Sherman's army, under Stoneman, in the Georgia campaign, until the fall of Atlanta. It performed an important part in the destruction of the Salt Works last winter, by going beyond the rebel lines and cutting their their communications with Lynchburg, and coming out with safety. It accom-panied Stoneman on his North Carolina raid in Johnston's rear, cutting off his sup plies and means of retreat.

In most of these movements it has been commanded by Maj. J. B. Harrison, who has the entire confidence of his men and officers. The regiment commenced its career with about 1,200 men, not more than 250 of whom remain. It has been consolidated with a battalion of the 16th and one battalion of the 11th Ky. Cavalry regiments, so that its present number is about 800

They have tried to honor themselves and country in the field, and now return to honor both at home, Having resisted rebels successfully with the cartridge box, they now propose to do so at the ballot box. They would like to give Gen. Rousseau about 800 votes if permitted, but none for the no-more-men nor money party. Shall they be allowed to vote now at th three years' fighting?

Owing to much increase of business we have transferred our Real Estate Department to the basement of the building now occupyed by our Claim Office. Our facilities for the disposal of Real Estate, either at private or auction sale, is unsurpassed by any in the city. Persons having property to sell, or those wishing to buy, would do well to give them a call. We are agents for rent or sale, at low figures, of cotton plantations in Northern Alabama.

DUNGAN & SMITH, Real Estate and Claim Agents, No. 419 Jeff. Street, bet. 4th and 5th.

POLITICAL. NOTICE.

TO THE PROPLE AND VOTERS OF THE 20TH SENder atorial District, composed of the counties of Franklin, Woodford and Anderson:

Fellow-citizens: At the earnest request of many of the loyal citizens of the counties above minioned, I have been initized to become a candidate for the SENATe. in this District. I am in favor of the Constitutional Amendment as the best, if not only means of restoring peace to Kentucky, at d thus saving the State from the awful consequences of another slave rebellion. As no State is claiming the institution of slavery, except Kentucky, I can see no benefit to be derived to our people by prolonging a rebellion which has already destroyed slavery in the entire South. Hoping to receive the support of all persons in the district who are opposed to the efforts now being made to revive and rerpetualte the dead institution of lavery.

Proclamation.

To the Officers of Elections:

COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY, EXECU IVE DEPARTMENT, FRANKFORT, KY., July 19, 1865.—The purity of the elective franchise can only be preserved by a faithful enforcement of the laws governing the same. For their enforcement the officers will be held respectible.

will be held responsible.

Every free white male citizen, 21 years of age, who has resided in Kentucky two years, and whose residence has been in the listrict where he offers to vote for 60 next next preceding the election; and each white male citizen who, not having two years residence in the State; but has resided one year in the county, and sixty days in the precinct where he offers to vote, next preceding the election of the state of the s ceding the election, is entitled to vote; pro-vided he has not expatriated himself and lost the elective franchise by coming within the provisions of the following act:

CHAPTER 509. An Acr to amend chapter 15 of the Revised Statutes, entitled "Citizens, Expatriation, and Aliens."

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assem SEC. 1. Bettenacted by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, That any citizen of this State who shall enter into the service of the so-called Confederate State, in either a civil or military capacity, or into the service of the so-called Provisional Government of Kentucky, in either a civil or military capacity, or having heretofore entered such service of either the Confederate States or Provisional Government, shall continue in such service after this ment, shall continue in such service after this act takes effect, or shall take up or continue in arms against the military forces of the United States or the State of Kentucky, or shall give voluntary aid and assistance to those in arms against said forces, shall be deemed to have expatriated himself, and shall no longer be active of Kentucky. shall no longer be a citizen of Kentucky; nor shall he again be a citizen, except by permission of the Legislature, by a general or special statute

SEC. 2. That whenever a person attempts, or is called on, to exercise any of the con-stitutional or legal rights and privileges belonging only to citizens of Kentucky, he may be required to negative, on oath, the expatriation provided in the first section of this act; and upon his failure or refusal to do so, shall not be permitted to exercise any such right or privilege. SEC. 3. This act to be of force in thirty days from and after its passage.

All persons challenged as coming within the provisions of this law, should be required to take the following oath, prescribed y my predecessor, and which is in conrmity with the law:

OATH. "You do solemnly swear that you have not, since the 10th day of April, 1862, been in the service of the so-called 'Confederate States,' or in the 'Provisional Government of Kentucky,' in either a civil or military capacity, and that you have not given, directly or indirectly, VOLUNTARY AID AND ASSISTANCE TO THOSE IN ARMS AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT OF THE UNITED STATES OR THE STATE OF KEN-STATES OR THE STATE OF KEN-TUCKY, or those who were intending to join the armed forces of the so-called 'Confederate States,' and that you will bear true and faith-ful allegiance to said Governments of the United States and State of Kentucky, so help

USEFUL ORTHOGRAPHICAL RULE, -- Among the other difficulties of English orthogra-phy is the relative position of i and e in the words ending in "ieve" or "eive," and both in manuscript and print are seen "believe" and "beleive," "recieve" and "receive," "reprieve" and "repreive," The writer was somewhat surprised on being told not long since, by a foreign lady, who was taught English in Holland, that there was a rule regulating the position of the letters referred to in all such words; and as it was new to him, and so far as he has discovered new to every one, he thinks it may be usful to give it publicity. When the precedent consonant is a letter which comes as ter i in the alphabet, e comes after i in the word, as "believing;" but when the preced ing consonant comes before i in the bet, e comes before i in the word, as The rule is invariable as applies t the class of words referred to, but is not of general application to words of one syllable having the same vowels in juxtaposition; thus we have "niece," "ceil," &c., which conform to the rule, and "chiel," "seize," &c., which do not.

Treatment of Our Prisoners in Rebel Pens -- Affidavit of a Soldier.

NEW YORK, August 4.—The Post pub-ishes the following affidavit made by Peter . Smith: I was Corporal in co. I, 6th connecticut Volunteers; was captured in ront of Petersburg, July 18, 1863, and was taken to Libby prison, then to Belle Island, and then to Gordonsville, September 5th, 1863: while there the rations were served out by Major Allen, of the 2d Virginia cav-alry. Allen would sometimes go to the United States men and ask if they would take the oath of allegiance to the Confederacy, and upon their declining would say "don't give them a dam mouthful to eat to-day." At one time he took eight of us, myself among the number, all non-commissioned officers, and upon our refusing to take the oath, and to persuade the privates to do so, tortured us in a frightful manner. I saw Major Allen in Richmond, Va., serving out provisions, furnished by Va., serving out provisions, furnished by the United States Government to the poor of Richmond. There is now in Richmond a Wm. Commercial Matters in New York. NEW YORK, August 4.-Stocks are dull but steady in price. Speculative tendency is kept in check by the high rate for money. There is, however, a very general feeling in favor of bidding for higher prices. At the morning Board quotations were higher for Railroad stocks than at last Board. There was a good down. There was a good demand for stocks generally, with considerable excitement on Northwestern shares.

in Alabama. New York, Aug. 4.—The Herald's special from Washington says among the latest reports from the Southern agency of the Freedmen's Bureau is that of the Commissioner at Selma, Ala. The writer describes the situation in Alabama as somewhat unpromising from anything more than productions of crops necessary for home consumption, and says the country has been in the trail of so many raids during the war that plantations are exceedingly destitute of stock or implements.

of stock or implements. The Commissioner refuses to authorize any contract with the negroes that does not call for proper compensation, and has positive assurance that the planter proposing employment has nothing to pay it with, and it is obvious the negroes will do well it they are insured support for one year. He also remarks, that making all allowances for the captiousness of their formers masters. It is a fact that as yet the labor of negroes is not what it should be. It is characterized as a fitful and deficent rule of terror to a great part of the negroes, who have not come under sufficient power of motive to supply its place. They are desirous of having matters in their own hands, and in their own way; nor do they have any adequate apprehension of the binding nature of their contracts, and are continually leaving most advantageous positions.

SYMPTOMS. The Symtoms of Catarrh are at first very slight. Persons find they have a cold, then they have frequent at-tacks, and are more sensitive to the changes of tempera-ture. In this condition, the rese may be dry, or a slight discharge, thin and acrid, afterward thick and adhesive

As the disease becomes chronic, the discharges are increased in quantity and changed in quality; they are now thick and heavy, and are hawked or coughed off. The seions are offensive, causing a bad breath; the voice thick and nasal; the eyes are weak; the sense of smell is lessened or destroyed; deafness frequently takes place. Another common and important symptom of Catarrh is that the person is obliged to clear his throat in the morning of a thick or slimy muceus, which has fallen from he head during the night. When this takes place the person may be sure that his disease is on its way to the lungs, and should lese no time in arresting it. The above are but few of the many Catarrhal symptoms

A very general misapprehension exists as to the number of pardons granted to late rebels, under the amnesty proclamation. Newspaper paragraphs cause this misunderstanding by carelessness in the statements that pardons had been granted when petition have only been recommended by a State Governor or the Attorney General. The President has not as yet granted many pardons, and during the past month the number granted to late rebels does not amount to fifty.

New York, August 4.—A significant ovation in honor of the Mexican Republic, as represented in the United States by Gen. Ortega, took place last evening at Delmonico's on Fifth-avenue, at 10 o'clock. A large assemblage gathered at that point, where Graffulis' 7th regiment band serenaded the distinguished Mexican, who was accompanied by two members of his staff, and surrounded by a large number of Ameri-cans and Mexican citizens. Speeches and toasts were mingled with other festivities, and the occasion was replete with interest nd enthusiam.

The following extract from a letter, writ-ten by Major General Phil. Sheridan, was received there: "There is no use to beat around the bush in this Mexican matter. We should give a permanent government to that Republic. Our work in crushing the rebillion will not be done until this takes place. The advent of Maximilian was a portion of the rebellion, and his fall should belong to its history. Most of the Mexican soldiers of Maximilian's army would throw down their arms the moment we crossed the Rio Grande. The French influence has governed by sheer impudence."
This letter from General Sheridan was greeted by all present with enthusiastic ex-pressions of pleasure and delight, New York, Aug. 4.—The Herald's special from Washington, dated the 3d, says the President's health is still bad, and that he contemplates a trip to Cape May.

A special to the Tribune from Washington, dated the 3d, says that, notwithstanding the various stories set afloat in regard to the ill treatment of Jeff Davis, it is but just to the authorities to state positively that he is treated with the consideration due a noted prisoner of State by the com-mandant at Fortress Monroe. No officer has been or is stationed in his cell. He is allowed to take frequent walks upon the ramparts, and is permitted to choose his own food. The stories that his cell is guarded by a score or more of bayonets, that in his promenades he is attended by a battal-ion of soldiers, and that his diet is limited to army rations are as ridiculous as untrue, The treatment of Jeff Davis is Christian-like and humane, and just such as a generous and dignified Government can well af-ford to bestow upon one who is no longer its enemy but its prisoner.

THE RIVER was at a stand vesterday with five feet eight inches water in the canal, by the mark in the evening. During the pre-vious twenty-four hours the channel depth had not varied an inch. The weather was very warm at noon, the thermoneter ranging as high as ninety in the shade, followed by one or two light showers of rain, which made the atmosphere eight or nine degrees feet eight inches water down the Indian chute, in the pass, and the river slowly

At Cincinnati at noon yesterday, the river had risen eight inches in the previous twenty-four hours, caused by the continued rains, and we may look for a rise here to-

An intelligent observer, a gardner of thirty years experience in this vicinity, says that more rain, or more rains, has fallen in July, and up to the present writing in August, this year, than ever before. In former times it was very difficult to get favorable weather in July for transplanting vegetables, especially the cabages, but this year was haddene advance on last week to day was rather dull for low grades, with a preponderance of common lugs in the break, but we notice a resale of two hids of cutting leaf weather in July for transplanting vegeta-bles, especially the cabages, but this year they could have have been safely planted almost any day in the month, the requisite for success being a cloudy, or rainy day. We had rain on the 1st of July, but from the 4th to the 8th, the hot term, there was no rain, but on the night of the 8th, it rained in torrents, and hardly twenty-four hours have assed since without a slight sprinkle, or a August, 1865:

The Government officials had orders for the transportation of an army of mules and wagons to St. Louis, and three or four boats were detailed for the transportation, in-cluding the Anglo Saxon, Melnotte, and Tyrone. The order, however, has, we learn, been countermanded for the present.

The Cumberland river is very low, and no boats are now plying to Nashville from low Eastport.

The W. L. Woodward, Capt. Woodward, will give her a good trip.

We understand that Capt. Woodward designs making weekly trips hence to Eastport, leaving this port every Saturday evening. We hope the arrangement will soon be consummated.

CAIRO PACKETS.—Several of our enterprising boatmen are making an effort to form a daily line hence to Cairo. With the co-operation of the Louisville and Memphis packets, which is assured the line can be successfully completed.

The Liberty No. 2 goes to Cairo and Memphis this evening. The neat and tidy light packet, Palestine, Capt. Ed. Crider, is also announced for Cairo this evening. The clerk is Capt. George Ashcraft. The Palestine is at the city many factors. Palestine is at the city wharf, all ready for freight this morning. She is advertised for from Portland, taking freight and passengers to all way points; also for White and Arkansas rivers, and to Vicksburg. The courteous clerk, Ed. Judge, attends to passengers, and signs through bills of lading to all points designated.

The National, Capt. Montgomery, having been detained completing her carro, taken been detained completing her cargo, takes her departure to New Orleans this morn-ing. She is a very staunch boat, and starts from Portland.

The Indiana, Capt. J. Stut Neal, is due from New Orleans this evening. She is one of the very best of the fleet, and takes her departure to New Orleans again early next Capt. John S. Woolfolk, of the Big Grey Eagle, has chartered the Peytona for six weeks, to ply the New Orleans and Vicksburg trade, in place of the Grey Eagle. The latter is now at Mound City undergoing Capt. Woolfolk is about to contract in this city for a splendid packet for the New Orleans, Vicksburg and the Bends trade, He wants a boat similar to the Gen. Quitman, and our mechanics can do the work better, and more durable than anybody

Our thanks are due Harry Walker, of the Great Ruth, for the latest New Orleans dates, and a river memorandum, forwarded dates, and a river memorandum, forwarded from Cairo. Among the consignments to this port by the Ruth are a "bundle of short-jointed cane poles" for an amateur fisherman. They have not yet come to hand.

The printer yesterday played havoc with our paragraph in regard to the Ruth. We designed saying, in reference to the fact that the John Kilgour was trailing behind, that the Ruth was the best "gleaner along the Western highway of waters," and of course left nothing behind for the Kilgour

o pick up. The Ruth had 239 cabin and 768 deck pasngers to Cairo, or 1,007 people, exclusive of the crew. The fleet Morning Star came in from Henderson yesterday afternoon.

The Morning Star, Capt. Bunce, is the regular mail and passenger packet this evening for Evansville, Henderson, and all way places. Shorter to the fields of the start of t all way places. She starts at 5 o'clock from the Portland wharf.

The Commercial, under the superintend-nce of Capt. Wes. Conner, a veteran boatman, is fast being converted into a new boat. She is at the lower wharf, and starts to Memphis and Duval's Bluff, on White river, on Monday.

The Sandy Valley, Capt. Williams, is the regular packet at noon to-day for Madison. The Gen. Lytle, Capt. Godman, is the fast and punctual mail line steamer for Cincinnati and the East to-day. She starts at noon, making all the usual mail landings, and connecting with the railroad trains.

North and East. The comfortable and popular People's Line steamer St. Nicholas starts to Cincinnati at noon to-day, under the auspices of the O. & M. T. Co. She starts punctually at the hour, provides comfortably for passen-gers, and connects with the early trains for the East. The clerk, Capt. J. M. Martin, is one of the most courteous, attentive and popular on the river.
The river at St. Louis was falling slowly Wednesday evening, and mong the departures was the J. G. Blackford for the Ohio
